Freshmen Learning Community Weekly:

We hope that you are all rested and enjoyed your spring break. There are only 8 weeks left of the school year, so let's make sure we finish strong. Make sure that you are taking advantage of your re-take and correction opportunities, as well as the tutoring sessions offered before and after school.

On Monday, April 3rd Pontiac Township High School hosted the 2nd annual Livingston County High School Art Competition. Participating schools were Pontiac Township High School, Flanagan-Cornell, Dwight Township High School, Woodland, Tri-Point, and Prairie Central. Artwork was judged in 9 categories: Painting, Black & White Drawing, Color Drawing, Printmaking, Ceramics, Sculpture, Photography, Mixed Media and Pen & Inks. Judging this year's artwork were JoanE & Ed Lipinski, Ben Diaz, and Patti Drengwitz. In addition to the judging of the artwork, one participant from each school competed in a modeling clay design competition. After that, students listened to Sarah Kasch, she gave a presentation over the American Academy of Art in Chicago. She discussed the school, artists, and opportunities for students in the county who choose to attend school there. After she finished speaking, the award ceremony took place. Students received first through third, and honorable mention was awarded in each category.
