- H.O.S.A., National Honor Society and National Technical Honor Society is having a "Toy" Drive to benefit the children of District 429. I have a list of kids and what they would like for Christmas. We ask that anyone wanting to participate to pick a child to buy for and return to Mrs. Rodino, Ms. Baumgardner or Mrs. Thompson by Dec. 14th so that the items can be wrapped and delivered to the Junior High on Friday, Dec. 16th for distribution. Please see Mrs. Rodino for the list of children. Thank you in advance for your participation and please pass this on to your students. Flyers will be posted around the school.

Freshmen Learning Community Weekly:

Guidance will be handing out your class schedules for next year. Make sure that you bring it home and discuss with your parents what courses you would like to take. If you are taking a course that requires a teacher signature please make sure that it is the teacher you have right now. Do not wait until next semester since many of you will be switching classes.
