Enter to Learn, Depart to Serve

Our Mission

We are committed to the development of our students as adaptive learners, global thinkers, and responsible citizens through collaboration across our school community.

Announcements:

- Any student interested in participating in sports this year needs to have a medical release and drug form. These need to be turned in at the Athletic Office by August 31st. After that date you will be charged $35.00.
- 2018-2019 yearbooks will be on sale for $50 through the end of August! This price will raise beginning on September 1st. Visit www.jostens.com/yearbooks to order yours!
- The PSAT/NMSQT will be administered on Wednesday, October 10, 2018, during PTHS Block Day periods 1 and 3. Cost for the exam is $16.00, payable at the time of registration. Please make checks out to PTHS. The deadline to register for the PSAT/NMSQT is September 5th.
- These students need to stop in the Athletic Office: Ashyla Alford, Alexis Durham, Payton Evans, Leeann Finnegan, Brayden Livingston, Nathan Wilson-Lockwood, Marcus Long, Lea McNeil, Caleb Peet, Autumn Pehlke, Aaron Putnam, Brandon Smith, Joell Zavala, Andrew Strogis, Haley Jones.
- Students please remember to bring your student ID to home events to get into the event for FREE.
- There will be a mandatory girls basketball meeting for anyone interested in playing girls basketball this year. The meeting will be Wednesday September 12th at 3:30 in Health Room 107. It is important to be at this meeting as important information and dates will be given. If you CANNOT attend, you must see Coach Hayner prior to the meeting to get information.
